

6 Practices to Strengthen Your Soft Skills in Cleared Environments

Soft skills aren't optional—they're mission critical. Whether you're briefing senior leaders or building trust with teammates, your ability to lead with clarity, empathy, and confidence makes the difference.

Reflect on Your Interactions

End each day with a quick check-in. What worked? What could have gone better?

Listen Actively

Show you're engaged by paraphrasing "So what I hear you saying is..."

Communicate with Clarity

Practice explaining ideas under pressure, then refine your tone and delivery.

Develop Empathy

Check in on how others are feeling and take time to listen without interrupting.

Respond, Don't React

Pause before you reply to help ensure a calm, measured response.

Strengthen Your Problem-Solving Skills

Use the "Five Whys" technique by asking "Why" multiple times to dig deeper into challenges.
